Dear Mr.

In accordance with the request in your letter dated February 4, 1983, reconsideration has been given the Morning Section of the paper you presented in the examination for registration held on October 5, 1982.

After careful consideration by the Committee on Enrollment of your request, and the remarks contained therein, it is still found that you have failed to attain a passing grade on the Morning Section of said examination.

Attached are comments by the regrader, with which the Committee on Enrollment concurs.

Very truly yours,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Donald J. Quigg", is written over the typed name and title.
